Raphael: A master in the making

AN ESSEX AREA DAY OF SPECIAL INTEREST MONDAY 8 APRIL 2019

With Siân Walters

Little Baddow Memorial Hall, Little Baddow, Chelmsford CM3 4TA

Cost £35 per person including coffee & biscuits and lunch

Raphael is often referred to as one of the three giants of the High Renaissance in Italy alongside Michelangelo and Leonardo da Vinci yet his career was short lived since he died tragically young, aged just 37. He progressed from a series of modest commissions in and around his home town of Urbino to become one of the leading artists at the court of Pope Julius II, the most important patron of the arts in Italy during the early 16th century.
